Anthem A Lenten Meditation Douglas Wagner
Chancel Choir

Jesu, in Thy dying woes, even while Thy life-blood flows, craving pardon for Thy foes: Hear us, Holy Jesu.
May our hearts to Thee incline, looking from our cross to Thine:
cheer our souls with hope divine: Hear us, Holy Jesu.
When we seem in vain to pray, and our hope seems far away,
In the darkness be our stay: Hear us, Holy Jesu.
May we thirst Thy love to know: Lead us in our sin and woe where the healing waters flow: Hear us, Holy Jesu.
Brighten all our heav'nward way with an ever holier ray till we pass to perfect day: Hear us, Holy Jesu.
May Thy life and death supply grace to live and grace to die, grace to reach our home on high: Hear us, Holy Jesu.

Anthem

King of the Wounds
Chancel Choir

Craig Courtney

King of the wounds, Lord of the tree, Prince of the nails dying for me.
 Prince of all sorrow, Lord of all grief, King of the wounds, come and heal me.
 I am the suffering, the nails in Your feet, the pierce of the thorns, the shame of the tree.
 I am the sorrow, I am the grief, I am the wounds, come and heal me.

Anthem

See Gethsemane
Chancel Choir

Lloyd Larson

See Gethsemane, see the Savior there; there on bended knee hear the Savior's prayer:
 "Take this cup from me, it seems too great to bear; but your will be done, my life is in your care."
 See the crowded streets; see the Savior there. Hear the jeering crowd as hatred fills the air!
 Crucify this man! Barabbas we will spare. Crucify Him now! But "Forgive them" is His prayer.
 See the darkened sky, see the Savior there; Hanging on a cross as His mockers stare.
 Gambling for his clothes, each wanting a share. Placing on his head a crown of thorns to wear.
 What wondrous love is this, O my soul!
 What wondrous love is this that caused the Lord of bless to bear the dreadful curse for my soul.
 See Gethsemane; see the Savior there. See the crowded streets.
 See the Savior there. Hanging on a cross. What wondrous love is this.
