Circle Up: Get settled; Reach out to anyone we expected to be here but isn't.

Opening Prayer:

Word of God,
Help us hear the sound of your voice calling us together. Speak stillness into our noisy lives, and prepare our hearts to journey with each other for this hour.
Amen.

The Question: Go around the circle answering, "Where have you seen God this week?"

Studying

Isaiah 6:1-9a NRSVue

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty, and the hem of his robe filled the temple. 2 Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. 3 And one called to another and said, "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." 4 The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. 5 And I said, "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!" 6 Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. 7 The seraph touched my mouth with it and said, "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." 8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!" 9 And he said, "Go..."

Reflection Questions:

Read the scripture, pause for silence, then "What words or phrases stuck out to you?"
What does this say about our relationship with God?

This is a recollection of a vision. It can be helpful to think of it like someone telling you their dream. What does this dream say about Isaiah and about God? Read the scripture one more time.

Have you ever overheard God's call before? Is God asking for help somewhere?

Praying

Pray for each other in silence or aloud.
At the end of the silent prayer, pray the Lord's Prayer together.
